Clark County Community Foundation Inc. Launches 2016 Grant Cycle.

The Clark County Community Foundation (CCCF) is pleased to announce the opening of its first grant cycle beginning on October 1, 2016. Completed applications from eligible Clark County non-profit organizations will be accepted by the Foundation through November 15, 2016 at 5pm. Grant applications can be obtained from the Foundation's website at www.clarkccf.org, along with program criteria, organization eligibility, and a list of required information. If your organization does not have access to computers or our website, contact the Foundation at 715.937.6167 and an application will be mailed to you.

Grant funds will be provided from the Clark County Community Fund, and unrestricted Field of Interest Funds. Depending on the number of qualified applications received, and total funds available, the Foundation anticipates awarding grants ranging in amounts from $100 to $1000 each. The CCCF intends to award at least one grant to each of the following focus areas: Agriculture, Arts/Cultural/Historic, Education, Youth, and Senior Citizens. See the Grant Application for examples of these focus areas and further details.

Today, charitable organizations all face similar challenges; an increased need for financial support, reduced resources from which to draw upon, and a higher demand for the services that they provide to others. Finding ways to help meet the current needs of our friends and neighbors here in Clark County, was a major reason for establishing the CCCF and the Clark County Community Fund. Your donation can help meet these needs and are accepted at any time throughout the year.
