

We Continue to Give Thanks

Thanksgiving 2015 has come and gone ~ but the Clark County Community Foundation Inc. (CCCF) continues to be grateful and give thanks for all of the people and blessings in our lives...

We are grateful for:

Our communities, friends and neighbors - who support each other during the good and bad times;

The non-profit organizations in our county - for all the projects, causes, and issues they champion - every day of the year;

Our senior citizens - for all that they have accomplished in their lives, and for all the sacrifices they have made - all helping to make Clark County, a special place to live and work;

Our youth and education system - because they are responsible for Clark County's future;

Our volunteers - for all they do to keep the CCCF operating and growing; and

The Donors, who financially support the CCCF - and in effect, the communities and citizens of Clark County WI

We provide Donors the opportunity to:

Make donations "In Honor" or "In Memory" of loved ones or organizations that were or are, important to them;

Financially support causes or organizations in Clark County that can make an positive impact today and in the future (i.e. agricultural, historic, cultural, education, youth, families or basic needs);

Create Endowments to support their favorite charities for years to come;

Establish a Scholarship to support the High School they graduated from; or Help a Church or other non-profit organization establish a permanent Endowment.

In 2016, we look forward to:

Working with Clark County residents and businesses - as together we continue to move the CCCF forward.

Donations have (and will) come in all shapes and sizes, and all donors who contribute to the CCCF through June 30, 2016 are each considered "Charter Donor Society" (CDS) Members. These CDS Donors will be forever recognized for their leadership and support of the Foundation and its mission during these initial years of operations.

Everyone, who has a special place in their hearts for Clark County Wisconsin, is welcome to participate in the programs and success of the CCCF.
